

HB 447 -- Annexations

Sponsor: Hobbs

Currently, when written objections are filed to a proposed annexation, the municipality must prepare an annexation plan, hold a public hearing and election, and file a declaratory judgment action. This bill makes an exception to this procedure in first classification counties when certain objections are filed by the county commission and the county commission and municipality resolve the objections either within 90 days of their filing or within a mutually agreed upon time period.