

HB 496 -- Health Insurance Eligibility

Sponsor: Cooper (120)

This bill prohibits health carriers from requiring applicants to submit tax forms that disclose salaries, income, wages, or any other tax information that is not relevant in determining coverage eligibility. Violation of these provisions will constitute an unfair trade practice. The Director of the Department of Insurance will establish additional categories of tax information that cannot be requested.