

HB 580 -- Reports of Child Abuse and Neglect

Sponsor: Byrd

This bill changes the definition of what constitutes child abuse. Signs of an abused or neglected child can be, but are not limited to, severe malnutrition, severe bruising, lacerations, burns, fractures, ligature marks, or severe welting that are not the result of a medical condition.