

HB 680 -- Meat Inspection Standards

Sponsor: Harris (110)

Currently, all commercial plants slaughtering and/or processing livestock or poultry for human consumption are required to be operated in accordance with prescribed standards. This bill designates llamas, alpaca, and buffalo as livestock and makes them subject to the same standards.