

HB 839 -- Tax Credits

Sponsor: Pearce

Currently, certain corporations can receive a tax credit for investing in or relocating a business to a distressed community. This bill expands the term "computer programming" corporation to include Internet, web hosting, and other information technology and expands the term "telecommunications" corporation to include wireless, wired, or other telecommunications corporations allowing these corporations to receive a tax credit.