

HB 886 -- Consumer Credit Reporting Agencies

Sponsor: Wright-Jones (63)

This bill prohibits a consumer credit reporting agency from adversely affecting a consumer's credit score based solely on the number of requests for a report unless the consumer has authorized the report and has agreed to accept any adverse effect that may result from the request.