

HB 888 -- Peace Officers

Sponsor: Byrd

This bill allows the Peace Officer Standards and Training Commission to discipline peace officers for engaging in acts of gross misconduct which indicate an inability to function as a peace officer. The commission is allowed to inform prospective employers of an applicant's prior employment with law enforcement agencies.