

HB 897 -- Benefits for Circuit Court Judges, Administrative Law Judges, and Their Employees

Sponsor: Vogt

This bill provides that, effective July 1, 2006, administrative law judges in the Division of Workers' Compensation or any associate circuit or circuit court judge who is a member of the judicial retirement system whose death occurred while in the performance of their duties will be paid six times their life insurance coverage amount. Disability benefits for employees of an administrative law, associate circuit, or circuit judge will be tripled if the disability occurs while in the performance of their duties.
