

HJR 9 -- School District Bond Elections

Sponsor: Schoemehl

This proposed constitutional amendment permits voters to approve school district bond issues with a simple majority if the election is held on a general election day or a general municipal election day. Currently, the size of the supermajority varies by election date from two-thirds to four-sevenths.