

SB 211 -- MERCHANDISING PRACTICES

Currently, if a salesperson sells merchandise and is paid on a commission basis and the employer fails to pay the salesperson the agreed upon commission, the salesperson has a right to file a civil claim against the employer under Chapter 407, RSMo. This bill expands the provision by adding the selling of services.