AN ACT

To amend chapter 407, RSMo, by adding thereto six new sections relating to computer spyware, with penalty provisions.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Chapter 407, RSMo, is amended by adding thereto six new sections, to be
2 known as sections 407.1480, 407.1483, 407.1486, 407.1489, 407.1492, and 407.1495, to read
3 as follows:

407.1480. Sections 407.1480 to 407.1495 shall be known as and may be cited as the
2 "Consumer Protection Against Computer Spyware Act".

407.1483. For purposes of sections 407.1480 to 407.1495, the following terms shall
2 mean:

3 (1) "Advertisement", a communication, the primary purpose of which is the 4 commercial promotion of a commercial product or service, including content on an
5 Internet web site operated for a commercial purpose;

6 (2) "Authorized user", with respect to a computer, a person who owns or is
7 authorized by the owner or lessee to use the computer. Authorized user shall not include
8 a person or entity that has obtained authorization to use the computer solely through the 9 use of an end-user license agreement;

10 (3) "Computer software", a sequence of instructions written in any programming
11 language that is executed on a computer;

EXPLANATION — Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted from the law. Matter in bold-face type in the above bill is proposed language.

- 12 (4) "Computer virus", a computer program or other set of instructions that is 13 designed to degrade the performance of or disable a computer or computer network and
14 is designed to have the ability to replicate itself on other computers or computer networks
15 without the authorization of the owners of those computers or computer networks;
- 16 (5) "Consumer", an individual who resides in the state and who uses a computer 17 primarily for personal, family, or household purposes;
- 18 (6) "Damage", any significant impairment to the integrity or availability of data,
19 software, a system, or information;
- 20 (7) "Execute", when used with respect to computer software, the performance of 21 the functions or the carrying out of the instructions of the computer software;
- 22 (8) "Intentionally deceptive", any of the following:
- 23 (a) By means of an intentionally and materially false or fraudulent statement;
- 24 (b) By means of a statement or description that intentionally omits or misrepresents 25 material information in order to deceive the consumer;
- 26 (c) By means of an intentional and material failure to provide any notice to an 27 authorized user regarding the download or installation of software in order to deceive the 28 consumer;
- 29 (9) "Internet", the global information system that is logically linked together by a
30 globally unique address space based on the Internet protocol, or its subsequent extensions,
31 and that is able to support communications using the Transmission Control
32 Protocol/Internet Protocol suite, or its subsequent extensions, or other Internet
33 protocol-compatible protocols, and that provides, uses, or makes accessible, either publicly
34 or privately, high level services layered on the communications and related infrastructure
35 described in this subdivision;
- 36 (10) "Person", any individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company,
37 or other organization, or any combination thereof;
- 38 (11) "Personally identifiable information", any of the following:
- 39 (a) A first name or first initial in combination with last name;
- 40 (b) Any credit or debit card numbers or other financial account numbers;
- 41 (c) A password or personal identification number required to access an identified 42 financial account;
- 43 (d) A Social Security number;
- 44 (e) Any of the following information in a form that personally identifies an 45 authorized user:
- 46 a. Account balance;
- 47 b. Overdraft history;

- 48 c. Payment history;
- 49 d. History of web sites visited;
- 50 e. Home address;
- 51 f. Work address;
- 52 g. Record of a purchase or purchases.

407.1486. A person or entity that is not an authorized user shall not, with actual knowledge, with conscious avoidance of actual knowledge, or willfully, cause computer software to be copied onto the computer of a consumer in this state and use the software to do any of the following:

(1) Modify, through intentionally deceptive means, any of the settings related to the computer's access to, or use of, the Internet;

(2) Collect, through intentionally deceptive means, personally identifiable information that meets any of the following criteria:

(a) It is collected through the use of a keystroke-logging function that records all keystrokes made by an authorized user who uses the computer and transfers that information from the computer to another person;

(b) It includes all or substantially all of the web sites visited by an authorized user, other than web sites of the provider of the software, if the computer software was installed in a manner designed to conceal from all authorized users of the computer the fact that the software is being installed;

(c) It is a data element described in paragraph (b), (c), or (d) of subdivision (11) of section 407.1483, or in subparagraph a. or b. of paragraph (e) of subdivision (11) of section 407.1483, that is extracted from the consumer's computer hard drive for a purpose wholly unrelated to any of the purposes of the software or service described to an authorized user;

(3) Prevent, without the authorization of an authorized user, through intentionally deceptive means, an authorized user's reasonable efforts to block the installation of, or to disable, software, by causing software that the authorized user has properly removed or disabled to automatically reinstall or reactivate on the computer without the authorization of an authorized user;

(4) Intentionally misrepresent that software will be uninstalled or disabled by an authorized user's action, with knowledge that the software will not be so uninstalled or disabled;

(5) Through intentionally deceptive means, remove, disable, or render inoperative security, antispyware, or antivirus software installed on the computer.

407.1489. A person or entity that is not an authorized user shall not, with actual knowledge, with conscious avoidance of actual knowledge, or willfully, cause computer

3 software to be copied onto the computer of a consumer in this state or use the software to
4 do any of the following:

5 (1) Take control of the consumer's computer by doing any of the following:

6 (a) Transmitting or relaying commercial electronic mail or a computer virus from 7 the consumer's computer, where the transmission or relaying is initiated by a person other
8 than the authorized user and without the authorization of an authorized user;

9 (b) Accessing or using the consumer's modem or Internet service for the purpose
10 of causing damage to the consumer's computer or of causing an authorized user to incur
11 financial charges for a service that is not authorized by an authorized user;

12 (c) Using the consumer's computer as part of an activity performed by a group of 13 computers for the purpose of causing damage to another computer, including, but not
14 limited to, launching a denial of service attack;

15 (d) Opening multiple, sequential, stand-alone advertisements in the consumer's
16 Internet browser without the authorization of an authorized user and with knowledge that 17 a reasonable computer user cannot close the advertisements without turning off the 18 computer or closing the consumer's Internet browser;

19 (2) Modify any of the following settings related to the computer's access to, or use
20 of, the Internet:

21 (a) An authorized user's security or other settings that protect information about
22 the authorized user for the purpose of stealing personal information of an authorized user;

23 (b) The security settings of the computer for the purpose of causing damage to one
24 or more computers;

25 (3) Prevent, without the authorization of an authorized user, an authorized user's
26 reasonable efforts to block the installation of, or to disable, software, including any of the 27 following:

28 (a) Presenting the authorized user with an option to decline installation of software
29 with knowledge that, when the option is selected by the authorized user, the installation
30 nevertheless proceeds;

31 (b) Falsely representing that software has been disabled;

32 (4) Nothing in this section shall apply to any monitoring of, or interaction with, a
33 subscriber's Internet or other network connection or service, or a protected computer, by
34 a telecommunications carrier, cable operator, computer hardware or software provider,
35 or provider of information service or interactive computer authorized service for
36 authorized network or computer security purposes, authorized diagnostics, technical
37 support, authorized repair, authorized updates of software or system firmware, authorized
38 remote system management, or authorized detection or prevention of the unauthorized use

39 of or fraudulent or other illegal activities in connection with a network, service, or
40 computer software, including scanning for and removing software proscribed under this
41 chapter.

407.1492. 1. A person or entity, who is not an authorized user is strictly prohibited
2 from doing any of the following with regard to the computer of a consumer in this state:

3 (1) Induce an authorized user to install a software component onto the computer
4 by intentionally misrepresenting that installing software is necessary for security or
5 privacy reasons or in order to open, view, or play a particular type of content;

6 (2) Deceptively causing the copying and execution on the computer of a computer
7 software component with the intent of causing an authorized user to use the component in 8 a way that violates any other provision of this section.

9 2. Nothing in this section shall apply to any monitoring of, or interaction with, a
10 subscriber's Internet or other network connection or service, or a protected computer, by
11 a telecommunications carrier, cable operator, computer hardware or software provider,
12 or provider of information service or interactive computer authorized service for
13 authorized network or computer security purposes, authorized diagnostics, technical
14 support, authorized repair, authorized updates of software or system firmware, authorized
15 remote system management, or authorized detection or prevention of the unauthorized use
16 of or fraudulent or other illegal activities in connection with a network, service, or
17 computer software, including scanning for and removing software proscribed under this
18 chapter.

407.1495. Any person who violates sections 407.1480 to 407.1495 is guilty of a class
2 B misdemeanor.
