AN ACT

To repeal section 86.365, RSMo, relating to special advisors to police departments.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 86.365, RSMo, is repealed as follows:

2 [86.365. Any person who served as a policeman for a period of thirty 3 years and who terminated employment and actually retired prior to October 1, 4 1957, in the police department of any city not within a county, under the 5 provisions of this chapter, shall, upon application to the police department of that 6 city, be employed by the department as a special advisor and supervisor in 7 connection with city police problems. Any person so employed shall perform 8 such duties as the chief of police directs and shall receive a salary of one hundred 9 dollars per month, payable out of the department budget pursuant to 10 appropriations for the purpose; except that the payment to the retired person for 11 such services, together with the retirement benefits such retired person receives 12 under this chapter, shall not exceed two hundred dollars per month. The 13 employment provided for by this section shall in no way affect any person's eligibility for retirement benefits under any provision of this chapter.]
