AN ACT

To repeal section 84.030, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to the St. Louis board of police commissioners.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 84.030, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 84.030, to read as follows:

84.030. Beginning on January 9, 1989, the governor of the state of Missouri, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, shall appoint the four commissioners provided for in section 84.020, and one commissioner shall be appointed for a term of one year; one commissioner shall be appointed for a term of two years; one commissioner shall be appointed for a term of three years; one commissioner shall be appointed for a term of four years. Their successors shall each be appointed by the governor up until the effective date of this section for a term of four years, and said commissioners shall hold office for their term of appointment and until their successors shall have been appointed and qualified. Beginning on the effective date of this section in any city not within a county their successors shall each be appointed by the mayor of St. Louis with the approval of the city's governing body, for a term of four years, and said commissioners shall hold office for their term of appointment and until their successors shall have been appointed and qualified. In case of a vacancy in said board for any cause whatsoever, it shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term[, in the same manner as in the case of original appointments] by the governor up until the effective date of this
