DESCRIPTION

Currently, a person who has been convicted of a felony or a crime of moral turpitude may be issued a teaching certificate by a unanimous vote of the State Board of Education. This proposal permits the Commissioner of Education to grant a certificate after an investigation by the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education. The state board will decide an appeal of a denied certificate.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
