AN ACT

To repeal section 130.032, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to limitations on campaign contributions for certain offices.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 130.032, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 130.032, to read as follows:

130.032. 1. In addition to the limitations imposed pursuant to section 130.031, the amount of contributions made by or accepted from any person other than the candidate in any one election shall not exceed the following:

(1) To elect an individual to the office of governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, state treasurer, state auditor or attorney general, one thousand dollars;

(2) To elect an individual to the office of state senator, five hundred dollars;

(3) To elect an individual to the office of state representative, two hundred fifty dollars;

(4) To elect an individual to any other office, including judicial office, if the population of the electoral district, ward, or other unit according to the latest decennial census is under one hundred thousand, two hundred fifty dollars;

(5) To elect an individual to any other office, including judicial office, if the population of the electoral district, ward, or other unit according to the latest decennial census is at least one hundred thousand but less than two hundred fifty thousand, five hundred dollars; and

EXPLANATION — Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted from the law. Matter in bold-face type in the above bill is proposed language.

14 (6) To elect an individual to any other office, including judicial office, if the population
15 of the electoral district, ward, or other unit according to the latest decennial census is at least two 16 hundred fifty thousand, one thousand dollars.

17 2. For purposes of this subsection "base year amount" shall be the contribution limits
18 prescribed in this section on January 1, 1995. Such limits shall be increased on the first day of 19 January in each even-numbered year by multiplying the base year amount by the cumulative
20 consumer price index, as defined in section 104.010, RSMo, and rounded to the nearest 21 twenty-five-dollar amount, for all years since January 1, 1995.

22 3. Candidate committees, exploratory committees, campaign committees and continuing 23 committees, other than those continuing committees which are political party committees, shall 24 be subject to the limits prescribed in subsection 1 of this section. The provisions of this 25 subsection shall not limit the amount of contributions which may be accumulated by a candidate 26 committee and used for expenditures to further the nomination or election of the candidate who 27 controls such candidate committee[, except as provided in section 130.052].

28 4. Except as limited by this subsection, the amount of cash contributions, and a separate 29 amount for the amount of in-kind contributions, made by or accepted from a political party
30 committee in any one election shall not exceed the following:

31 (1) To elect an individual to the office of governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of 32 state, state treasurer, state auditor or attorney general, ten thousand dollars;

33 (2) To elect an individual to the office of state senator, five thousand dollars;

34 (3) To elect an individual to the office of state representative, two thousand five hundred 35 dollars; and

36 (4) To elect an individual to any other office of an electoral district, ward or unit, ten 37 times the allowable contribution limit for the office sought.

38
39 The amount of contributions which may be made by or accepted from a political party committee
40 in the primary election to elect any candidate who is unopposed in such primary shall be fifty 41 percent of the amount of the allowable contributions as determined in this subsection.

42 5. Contributions from persons under fourteen years of age shall be considered made by 43 the parents or guardians of such person and shall be attributed toward any contribution limits
44 prescribed in this chapter. Where the contributor under fourteen years of age has two custodial 45 parents or guardians, fifty percent of the contribution shall be attributed to each parent or 46 guardian, and where such contributor has one custodial parent or guardian, all such contributions
47 shall be attributed to the custodial parent or guardian.

48 6. Contributions received and expenditures made prior to January 1, 1995, shall be 49 reported as a separate account and pursuant to the laws in effect at the time such contributions

50 are received or expenditures made. Contributions received and expenditures made after January 51 1, 1995, shall be reported as a separate account from the aforementioned account and pursuant 52 to the provisions of this chapter. The account reported pursuant to the prior law shall be retained
53 as a separate account and any remaining funds in such account may be used pursuant to this 54 chapter and section 130.034.

55 7. Any committee which accepts or gives contributions other than those allowed shall 56 be subject to a surcharge of one thousand dollars plus an amount equal to the contribution per 57 nonallowable contribution, to be paid to the ethics commission and which shall be transferred 58 to the director of revenue, upon notification of such nonallowable contribution by the ethics
59 commission, and after the candidate has had ten business days after receipt of notice to return
60 the contribution to the contributor. The candidate and the candidate committee treasurer or 61 deputy treasurer owing a surcharge shall be personally liable for the payment of the surcharge
62 or may pay such surcharge only from campaign funds existing on the date of the receipt of 63 notice. Such surcharge shall constitute a debt to the state enforceable under, but not limited to,
64 the provisions of chapter 143, RSMo.

65 8. No fund-raising event shall be held, nor any contribution solicited or received,
66 at any time from the beginning until the adjournment sine die of the regular and special
67 sessions of the general assembly as established in sections 20, 20(a), and 20(b), article III,
68 Constitution of Missouri, or at any time during any veto session convened under section
69 32, article III, Constitution of Missouri.
