AN ACT

To repeal section 190.327, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to the board of directors of a central dispatching service for emergency services.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 190.327, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 190.327, to read as follows:

190.327. 1. Immediately upon the decision by the commission to utilize a portion of the emergency telephone tax for central dispatching and an affirmative vote of the telephone tax, the commission shall appoint the initial members of a board which shall administer the funds and oversee the provision of central dispatching for emergency services in the county and in municipalities and other political subdivisions which have contracted for such service. Beginning with the general election in 1992, all board members shall be elected according to this section and other applicable laws of this state. At the time of the appointment of the initial members of the board, the commission shall relinquish to the board and no longer exercise the duties prescribed in this chapter with regard to the provision of emergency telephone service and in chapter 321, RSMo, with regard to the provision of central dispatching service, and such duties shall be exercised by the board.

2. Elections for board members may be held on general municipal election day, as defined in subsection 3 of section 115.121, RSMo, after approval by a simple majority of the county commission.

EXPLANATION — Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted from the law. Matter in bold-face type in the above bill is proposed language.

15 3. For the purpose of providing the services described in this section, the board shall 16 have the following powers, authority and privileges:

17 (1) To have and use a corporate seal;

18 (2) To sue and be sued, and be a party to suits, actions and proceedings;

19 (3) To enter into contracts, franchises and agreements with any person, partnership,
20 association or corporation, public or private, affecting the affairs of the board;

21 (4) To acquire, construct, purchase, maintain, dispose of and encumber real and personal
22 property, including leases and easements;

23 (5) To have the management, control and supervision of all the business affairs of the 24 board and the construction, installation, operation and maintenance of any improvements;

25 (6) To hire and retain agents and employees and to provide for their compensation
26 including health and pension benefits;

27 (7) To adopt and amend bylaws and any other rules and regulations;

28 (8) To fix, charge and collect the taxes and fees authorized by law for the purpose of 29 implementing and operating the services described in this section;
