

HB 1036 -- Electronic Video Instructional Materials

Sponsor: Sander

This bill requires closed captioning on electronic video instructional materials, as defined in the bill, designed for elementary and secondary school level users beginning January 1, 2009. Exceptions are made for certain materials. If a publisher knowingly fails to comply with the requirements, the entity that paid for the materials may receive damages of 10 times the amount paid to have them captioned.