

HB 1071 -- Immunizations for Children

Sponsor: Phillips

This bill allows the Department of Health and Senior Services to develop rules and regulations changing the manner and frequency of certain immunizations for children. However, the department cannot require immunizations for diseases other than those allowed by statute.