

HB 1317 -- Crime Victim's Rights

Sponsor: Lipke

This bill requires a photograph to be taken of every incarcerated individual and made available to the victim upon request. The bill also allows victims to be represented by an appointed person instead of a personal appearance during parole and probation revocation hearings for the defendant. The victim's appointee who honors any subpoena to testify in or attend a criminal proceeding is protected from discharge by any employer.