

HB 1483 -- Child Support Enforcement

Sponsor: Lampe

This bill allows the Family Support Division within the Department of Social Services or other state IV-D agencies to request and receive cell phone and Internet service records when attempting to locate and determine the financial resources of a parent. Any business, financial entity, or its employees who in good faith provides information to a state IV-D agency are immune from civil or criminal liability.