

HB 1601 -- Emergency Medical Treatment

Sponsor: Weter

This bill specifies that informed consent is not required for research programs or experimental medical procedures for patients subject to a life-threatening emergency when conducted in accordance with certain federal regulations.

The bill contains an emergency clause.