

HB 1842 -- Plant Biotechnology

Sponsor: Myers

This bill specifies that no ordinance or regulation of any political subdivision will prohibit or regulate the registration, labeling, sale, storage, transportation, processing, distribution, notification of use, use, or planting of seeds or other propagules. The state will not promulgate or enforce any rule or standard more restrictive than federal rules regarding research, development, and use of seed and other propagule technologies.