

HB 1917 -- Child Care

Sponsor: Lampe

Currently, the Department of Health and Senior Services does not require a person providing child care to have a license if he or she cares for four or fewer children, not including children related by blood, marriage, or adoption. This bill removes the relative child exemption.