

HB 1937 -- Spouses of Deployed Soldiers

Sponsor: Tilley

This bill allows the spouse of a deployed soldier to receive up to two weeks off without pay prior to the soldier's deployment, during any time the soldier is home on a pass, and immediately after the soldier returns from deployment. Employers are prohibited from firing, demoting, or taking other adverse actions against a spouse who exercises this right.