

HB 1938 -- Child Support

Sponsor: Baker (123)

Currently, parental support must continue when a child older than 18 years of age is enrolled in and attends a post-secondary school program. This bill makes the child support for post-secondary education permissive rather than mandatory.