

HB 1970 -- Liability for Damage or Destruction of Field Crop Products

Sponsor: Munzlinger

Currently, a person who knowingly damages or destroys a field crop product is liable for double the damages. This bill specifies that a person who negligently damages or destroys a field crop product is liable only for actual damages directly related to the damaged or destroyed crop.