

HB 2089 -- Chemical Blood Alcohol Tests

Sponsor: Donnelly

This bill removes the requirement that a licensed physician, registered nurse, or trained medical technician must use a nonalcoholic antiseptic for cleansing the skin prior to drawing blood for the purpose of determining the alcohol content of the blood.