

HB 2109 -- Health Insurance Coverage for Cervical Cancer Testing

Sponsor: Low (39)

This bill requires that all health carriers and health benefit plans, excluding supplemental insurance policies, include coverage for the cost of human papillomavirus (HPV) testing as a cervical cancer screening test. The testing will be subject to the same deductibles or copayments as other similar health care services.