

HB 2135 -- Planning and Zoning in Jefferson County

Sponsor: Roorda

This bill allows the county planning commission and the county commission in Jefferson County to retroactively apply planning and zoning regulations to subdivision plats approved and recorded before the adoption of planning and zoning if less than 50% of the lots in the subdivision have been developed.

The bill contains an emergency clause.