

HJR 42 -- Charter Counties

Sponsor: Johnson (47)

This proposed constitutional amendment allows, upon voter approval, any county to adopt a charter form of government. Currently, only counties having a population of 85,000 or any county which attains first classification county status and maintains that status for two years is authorized to adopt a charter form of government.