FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the State Tax Commission, the City of Centralia, Nodaway County, Texas County, and the Office of the Boone County Collector assume this proposal would have no fiscal impact to their organizations.

Officials from the Office of the Secretary of State (SOS) provided the following response:

Many bills considered by the General Assembly include provisions allowing or requiring agencies to submit rules and regulations to implement the act. The SOS is provided with core funding to handle a certain amount of normal activity resulting from each year's legislative session. The fiscal impact for this fiscal note to SOS for Administrative Rules is less than $2,500. The SOS recognizes that this is a small amount and does not expect that additional funding would be required to meet these costs. However, we also recognize that many such bills may be passed by the General Assembly in a given year and that collectively the costs may be in excess of what our office can sustain with our core budget. Therefore, we reserve the right to request funding for the cost of supporting administrative rules requirements should the need arise based on a review of the finally approved bills signed by the governor.

Officials from the Office of Administration, Division of Budget and Planning, assumed there would be no added cost to their organization as a result of this proposal. BAP notes that the proposal could increase claims in the Senior Property Tax Credit or Homestead Preservation Credit programs. This proposal would reduce general and total state revenues. BAP defers to the DOR and STC for an estimate of the reduction.

Officials from the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education (DESE) stated the proposal does not appear to require any increase in state cost to the basic state aid for public school districts. The proposal does specify that revenue losses to political subdivisions would be reimbursed by the state through appropriations. Therefore, there appears to be some unknown state cost.

Officials from the Department of Revenue (DOR) assume this proposal would allow more taxpayers to qualify for the Senior Property Tax Credit (PTC) and Homestead Preservation Credit (HPC), which would result in reduced state revenues.

DOR assumes Personal Tax would require 1.0 Temporary Tax Employee for every additional 10,705 returns filed, and 1 Tax Processing Technician I for every additional 25,000 returns to be verified and for correspondence, due to the income limitation changes found in this legislation.

DOR also stated that Customer Assistance would anticipate a greater volume of customer contacts. They would require 1 Tax Collection Technician I for every 15,000 calls a year on the income tax hot line due to lack of documentation. They will also need 1 Tax Processing Technician I for every additional 4,800 contacts in the field offices. DOR anticipates most customers would contact the department via phone, and therefore, would only request 1 FTE for each of the larger field offices including Kansas City, St. Louis, and Springfield.

Information Technology ITSD/DOR estimates the IT portion of this request could be accomplished within existing resources, however; if priorities shift, additional FTE/overtime would be needed to implement. ITSD/DOR estimates that this legislation could be implemented utilizing 2 existing CIT III for 2 months at a cost of $16,744.

DOR submitted a cost estimate including five additional FTE and related equipment and expenditures totaling $199,382 for FY 2008, $240,802 for FY 2009, and $248,028 for FY 2010. In response to a similar proposal in the previous session (HB 1354 LR 3865-01), DOR estimated three new FTE would be required. Oversight will use the previous estimate; if unanticipated additional costs are incurred or if multiple proposals are enacted which impose additional costs, DOR could request resources through the budget process.

Oversight has, for fiscal note purposes only, changed the starting salary for the new positions to correspond to the second step above minimum for comparable positions in the state's merit system pay grid. This decision reflects a study of actual starting salaries for new state employees for a six month period and the policy of the Oversight Subcommittee of the Joint Committee on Legislative Research. Oversight has also adjusted the DOR equipment and expense estimate in accordance with OA budget guidelines. Oversight assumes that the small number of additional staff could be situated in existing office space.

Officials from the University of Missouri, Economic Policy and Research Center (EPARC) stated in response to a previous version of this proposal that the impact of the Circuit Breaker provisions in this proposal would increase property tax relief for senior citizens. Beginning in 2008, the upper income limit would be increased to $25,000. Over time, the upper income limit would be indexed to the rate of change in the consumer price index. Similarly, the minimum tax bracket would also be indexed to the same measure of inflation. EPARC used an estimated inflation rate of 3.2 percent per year and estimated the change in the tax credit would be as follows:

FY 2008	$0 No change in credit
FY 2009	$937,973 increase in credit
FY 2010	$909,501 increase in credit
FY 2011	$1,705,699 increase in credit
FY 2012	($835,303) decrease in credit

In response to a similar proposal in the previous session, (HB 1808 LR 5066-01 (2006) the State Tax Commission (TAX) provided the following information regarding changes to the Homestead Preservation Act changes:

According to the 2000 census information, 70.3% of the housing units are owner occupied with 22.4% of the householders 65 years of age and older. In addition, 89.6% of these households have income less than $70,000. TAX does not have any information available as to spouse age or handicapped status for spouses of homeowners over 65. For fiscal note purposes, TAX assumes all householder are over 65 and have a spouse over 60 or handicapped.

The 2005 assessed valuation for residential property is $42,782,543,503. As there are minimal improvements to residential property in an even-numbered year, TAX will assume for 2006, the assessed valuation will again be approximately 42.7 billion dollars.

TAX calculated the estimated change in tax collections as follows:

$$42,782,543,503 \times 70.3\%$ (residential property owner occupied) = $30,076,128,082.

$$30,076,128,082 \times 22.4\%$ (residential property owner occupied 65 years and older) = $6,737,052,690.

$$6,737,052,690 \times 89.6\%$ (income under $70,000) = $6,022,925,104.

In the next reassessment year (2007), TAX projected there will be an increase in assessed valuation of 10% for all real property.

Oversight assumes that by utilizing TAX's estimate of assessed valuation of $6,022,925,104 for those residential properties with owners 65 years of age and older and with incomes under $70,000, this would equate to property taxes of roughly $361,375,506, using a $6 per hundred average state tax rate ($$6,022,925,104 / 100 \times \6). The increase in 2007 of 10 percent (as projected by TAX) would equate to $36,137,550. The homestead exemption limit (maximum allowable increase in property taxes due) is 5% in a General Reassessment (odd numbered) year and 2 1/2 % in a year with out a General Reassessment (even numbered).

The current tax increase limit is based on the increase to tax liability from two years prior to the application to the year prior to the application. The proposal would fix the base year for applications filed in 2007 as 2005, and the base year for applications filed after 2007 would be the later of 2006 or the year before the taxpayer's first application was approved. The base year for taxpayers who file an initial application after 2007 would have a base year prior to the year in which they file an initial application.

Oversight assumes that most taxpayers who have already filed an initial application would have the same assessed value for 2006 as for 2005, and the same limited increase for 2007. The proposal would therefore have no fiscal impact for 2007 (FY 2008).

For 2009, however, the proposal would fix the base year for most taxpayers at 2006 rather than 2008. There would be an additional tax credit for 2009 (FY 2010) equal to $($36,137,550 \times 110\% \times 110\%) - (36,137,550 \times 105\% \times 105\%) = $3,884,787$. The tax credit required would continue to increase since the fixed base year valuation would fall farther behind assessment increases.

Oversight assumes the county collectors would abstract the tax credits to all taxes levied, resulting in losses to the Blind Pension Fund of approximately 1/2 of 1% of the credits, or $19,424 in FY 2008. In addition, the reimbursement to the counties would be subject to the 1/4% withholding for the county's Assessment Fund. In FY 2010 there would be a state reimbursement, subject to appropriation, of an amount equal to that tax loss which would be abstracted by the county collectors and received by the Blind Pension Fund.

Oversight will assume the tax credits for the reassessment year of 2009 will be appropriated for FY 2010. Oversight also assumes the county assessors will incur an unknown amount of additional expense from the proposal in the state's even fiscal years.

FISCAL IMPACT - Small Business

No direct fiscal impact to small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal.

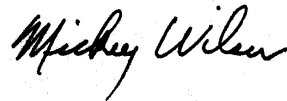

FISCAL DESCRIPTION

This proposal would make changes in the Senior Property Tax Credit (Circuit Breaker) and Homestead Property Tax Credit programs.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
