AN ACT

To repeal section 260.546, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to hazardous substances.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 260.546, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 260.546, to read as follows:

260.546. 1. In the event that a hazardous substance release occurs for which a political subdivision or volunteer fire protection association as defined in section 320.300, RSMo, 2 provides emergency services, the person having control over a hazardous substance shall be liable for such reasonable and necessary cleanup costs incurred by the political subdivision or 4 volunteer fire protection association. Such liability includes the cost of materials, supplies and 5 contractual services actually used to [secure an emergency situation] clean up the release of a hazardous substance. The liability may also include the cost for contractual services which are not routinely provided by the department or political subdivision or volunteer fire protection association. Such liability shall not include the cost of normal services which otherwise would 9 10 have been provided. Such liability shall not include budgeted administrative costs or the costs for duplicate services if multiple response teams are requested by the department or political 11 12 subdivision unless, in the opinion of the department or political subdivision, duplication of 13 service was required to protect the public health and environment. [Such liability shall be established upon receipt by] No later than sixty days after the completion of the cleanup of 14 15 the release of a hazardous substance the political subdivision or volunteer fire protection association shall submit to the person having control of the spilled hazardous substance [of] an itemized statement of costs provided by the political subdivision.

- 2. Full payment shall be made within thirty days of receipt of the cost statement unless the person having control over the hazardous substance contests the amount of the costs pursuant to this section. If the person having control over the hazardous substance elects to contest the payment of such costs, [he] such person shall file an appeal with the director within thirty days of receipt of the cost statement.
- 3. Upon receipt of such an appeal, the director shall notify the parties involved of the appeal and collect such evidence from the parties involved as [he] the director deems necessary to make a determination of reasonable cleanup costs. The burden of proof shall be on the political subdivision or volunteer fire protection district to document and justify such cleanup costs allowed under subsection 1 of this section. Within [thirty] sixty days of notification of the appeal, the director shall notify the parties of his or her decision. The director shall direct the person having control over a hazardous substance to pay those costs [he] the director finds to be reasonable and appropriate. The determination of the director shall become final thirty days after receipt of the notice by the parties involved unless prior to such date one of the involved parties files a petition for judicial review pursuant to chapter 536, RSMo.
- 4. The political subdivision or volunteer fire protection association may apply to the department for reimbursement from the hazardous waste fund created in section 260.391 for the costs for which the person having control over a hazardous substance shall be liable if the political subdivision or volunteer fire protection association is able to demonstrate a need for immediate relief for such costs and believes it will not receive prompt payment from the person having control over a hazardous substance. When the liability owed to the political subdivision or volunteer fire protection association by the person having control over a hazardous substance is paid, the political subdivision or volunteer fire protection association shall reimburse the department for any payment it has received from the hazardous waste fund. Such reimbursement to a political subdivision or volunteer fire protection association by the department shall be paid back to the department by the political subdivision or volunteer fire protection association within that time limit imposed by the department notwithstanding failure of the person having control over a hazardous substance to reimburse the political subdivision or volunteer fire protection association within that time.
- 5. Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, any owner, as defined in section 537.297, RSMo, of anhydrous ammonia shall not be liable for cleanup costs as a result of an anhydrous ammonia release by a tamperer, as defined in section 537.297, RSMo.
