AN ACT

To repeal section 115.124, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to elections in villages.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 115.124, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 115.124, to read as follows:

115.124. 1. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, in a nonpartisan election in any political subdivision or special district except for municipal elections, if the notice provided for in subsection 5 of section 115.127 has been published in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the district, and if the number of candidates who have filed for a particular office is equal to the number of positions in that office to be filled by the election, no election shall be held for such office, and the candidates shall assume the responsibilities of their offices at the same time and in the same manner as if they had been elected. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, if at any election the number of candidates filing for a particular office exceeds the number of positions to be filled at such election, the election authority shall hold the election as scheduled, even if a sufficient number of candidates withdraw from such contest for that office so that the number of candidates remaining after the filing deadline is equal to the number of positions to be filled.

2. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, in any election in any city, town, or village, as defined in chapter 72, RSMo, if the number of candidates who have filed for

EXPLANATION — Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted from the law. Matter in bold-face type in the above bill is proposed language.

15 a particular office is equal to the number of positions in that office to be filled by the 16 election, no election shall be held for such office, and the candidates shall assume the 17 responsibilities of their offices at the same time and in the same manner as if they had been 18 elected. If at any election in any city, town, or village the number of candidates filing for 19 a particular office exceeds the number of positions to be filled at such election, the election
20 authority shall hold the election as scheduled, even if a sufficient number of candidates 21 withdraw from such contest for that office so that the number of candidates remaining 22 after the filing deadline is equal to the number of positions to be filled.

23 3. The election authority or political subdivision responsible for the oversight of the 24 filing of candidates in any nonpartisan election in any political subdivision or special district 25 shall clearly designate where candidates shall form a line to effectuate such filings and determine 26 the order of such filings; except that, in the case of candidates who file a declaration of candidacy 27 with the election authority or political subdivision prior to 5:00 p.m. on the first day for filing, 28 the election authority or political subdivision may determine by random drawing the order in 29 which such candidates' names shall appear on the ballot. If a drawing is conducted pursuant to 30 this subsection, it shall be conducted so that each candidate may draw a number at random at the 31 time of filing. If such drawing is conducted, the election authority or political subdivision shall 32 record the number drawn with the candidate's declaration of candidacy. If such drawing is 33 conducted, the names of candidates filing on the first day of filing for each office on each ballot 34 shall be listed in ascending order of the numbers so drawn.
