The county clerk shall present a report on the financial condition of the county to the commission once the chairman is elected, and shall keep the minutes of the meeting.

38 6. For purposes of this section, the 1988 base compensation is the compensation paid on 39 September 1, 1987, plus the same percentage increase paid or allowed, whichever is greater, to 40 the presiding commissioner or the sheriff, whichever is greater, of that county for the year 41 beginning January 1, 1988. Such increase shall be expressed as a percentage of the difference 42 between the maximum allowable compensation and the compensation paid on September 1, 43 1987. At its meeting in 1987 and at any meeting held in 1988, the salary commission shall 44 determine the compensation to be paid to every county officer holding office on January 1, 1988. 45 The salary commission shall establish the compensation for each office at an amount not greater 46 than that set by law as the maximum compensation. If the salary commission votes to increase 47 compensation, but not to pay the maximum amount authorized by law for any officer or office, then the increase in compensation shall be the same percentage increase for all officers and 48 49 offices and shall be expressed as a percentage of the difference between the maximum allowable 50 compensation and the compensation being received at the time of the vote. If two-thirds of the 51 members of the salary commission vote to decrease the compensation being received at the time 52 of the vote below that compensation, all officers shall receive the same percentage decrease. The 53 commission may vote not to increase or decrease the compensation and that compensation shall 54 continue to be the salary of such offices and officers during the subsequent term of office.

55 7. For the year 1989 and every second year thereafter, the salary commission shall meet 56 in every county as many times as it deems necessary on or prior to November thirtieth of any 57 such year for the purpose of determining the amount of compensation to be paid to county 58 officials. For each year in which the commission meets, the members shall elect a chairman 59 from their number. The county clerk shall present a report on the financial condition of the 60 county to the commission once the chairman is elected, and shall keep minutes of the meeting.

The salary commission shall then consider the compensation to be paid for the next term of 61 62 office for each county officer to be elected at their next general election. If the commission votes 63 not to increase or decrease the compensation, the salary being paid during the term in which the 64 vote was taken shall continue as the salary of such offices and officers during the subsequent term of office. If the salary commission votes to increase the compensation, all officers or 65 66 offices whose compensation is being considered by the commission at that time shall receive the 67 same percentage of the maximum allowable compensation. However, for any county in which 68 all offices' and officers' salaries have been set at one hundred percent of the maximum allowable 69 compensation, the commission may vote to increase the compensation of all offices except that 70 of full-time prosecuting attorneys at that or any subsequent meeting of the salary commission 71 without regard to any law or maximum limitation established by law. Such increase shall be 72 expressed as a percentage of the compensation being paid during the term of office when the vote 73 is taken, and each officer or office whose compensation is being established by the salary 74 commission at that time shall receive the same percentage increase over the compensation being 75 paid for that office during the term when the vote is taken. This increase shall be in addition to 76 any increase mandated by an official's salary schedule because of changes in assessed valuation 77 during the current term. If the salary commission votes to decrease the compensation, a vote of 78 two-thirds or more of all the members of the salary commission shall be required before the 79 salary or other compensation of any county office shall be decreased below the compensation 80 being paid for the particular office on the date the salary commission votes, and all officers and 81 offices shall receive the same percentage decrease.

82 8. The salary commission shall issue, not later than December fifteenth of any year in 83 which it meets, a report of compensation to be paid to each officer and the compensation so set 84 shall be paid beginning with the start of the subsequent term of office of each officer. The report 85 of compensation shall be certified to the clerk of the county commission for the county and shall 86 be in substantially the following form:

The salary commission for County hereby certifies that it has met pursuant to law to establish compensation for county officers to be paid to such officers during the next term of office for the officers affected. The salary commission reports that there shall be (no increase in compensation) (an increase of percent) (a decrease of percent) (county officer's salaries set at percent of the maximum allowable compensation).

Salaries shall be adjusted each year on the official's year of incumbency for any change in the last completed assessment that would affect the maximum allowable compensation for that office.
95
9. For the meeting in 1989 and every meeting thereafter, in the event a salary commission in any county fails, neglects or refuses to meet as provided in this section, or in the

97 event a majority of the salary commission is unable to reach an agreement and so reports or fails

98 to certify a salary report to the clerk of the county commission by December fifteenth of any year 99 in which a report is required to be certified by this section, then the compensation being paid to 100 each affected office or officer on such date shall continue to be the compensation paid to the 101 affected office or officer during the succeeding term of office.

102 10. Other provisions of law notwithstanding, in every instance where an officer or 103 employee of any county is paid a mileage allowance or reimbursement, the county commission 104 shall allow or reimburse such officers or employees out of the county treasury at the highest rate 105 paid to any county officer for each mile actually and necessarily traveled in the performance of 106 their official duties. The county commission of any county may elect to pay a mileage allowance 107 for any county commissioner for travel going to and returning from the place of holding 108 commission meetings and for all other necessary travel on official county business in the 109 personal motor vehicle of the commissioner presenting the claim. The governing body of any 110 county of the first classification not having a charter form of government may provide by order 111 for the payment of mileage expenses of elected and appointed county officials by payment of a 112 certain amount monthly which would reflect the average monthly mileage expenses of such 113 officer based on the amount allowed pursuant to state law for the payment of mileage for state 114 employees. Any order entered for such purpose shall not be construed as salary, wages or other 115 compensation for services rendered.

116 11. The term "maximum allowable compensation" as used in this section means the 117 highest compensation which may be paid to the specified officer or office in the particular county 118 based on the salary schedule established by law for the specified officer or office. If the salary 119 commission at its meeting in 1987 voted for one hundred percent of the maximum allowable 120 compensation and does not change such vote at its meeting held within thirty days after May 13, 121 1988, as provided in subsection 6 of this section, the one hundred percent shall be calculated on 122 the basis of the total allowable compensation permitted after May 13, 1988.

123 12. At the salary commission meeting which establishes the percentage rate to be applied 124 to county officers during the next term of office, the salary commission may authorize the further 125 adjustment of such officers' compensation as a cost-of-living component and effective January first of each year, the compensation for county officers may be adjusted by the county 126 127 commission, and if the adjustment of compensation is authorized, the percentage increase shall 128 be the same for all county officers, not to exceed the percentage increase given to the other 129 county employees. The compensation for all county officers may be set as a group, although the 130 change in compensation will not become effective until the next term of office for each officer.

131 13. At the salary commission meeting in 1997 which establishes the salaries for those 132 officers to be elected at the general election in 1998, the salary commission of each noncharter 133 county may provide salary increases for associate county commissioners elected in 1996. This 134 one-time increase is necessitated by the change from two- to four-year terms for associate 135 commissioners pursuant to house bill 256, passed by the first regular session of the eighty-eighth 136 general assembly in 1995.

66.010. 1. Any first class county framing and adopting a charter for its own government 2 under the provisions of section 18, article VI of the constitution of this state, may prosecute and 3 punish violations of its county ordinances in the circuit court of such counties in the manner and 4 to the extent herein provided or in a county municipal court [if creation of a county municipal court is authorized by such charter]. In addition, the county may prosecute and punish municipal 5 ordinance violations in the county municipal court pursuant to a contract with any municipality 6 within the county. Any county municipal court established pursuant to the provisions of this 7 section shall have jurisdiction over violations of that county's ordinances and the ordinances of 8 9 municipalities with which the county has a contract to prosecute and punish violations of municipal ordinances of the city. Costs and procedures in any such county municipal court shall 10 11 be governed by the provisions of law relating to municipal ordinance violations in municipal 12 divisions of circuit courts.

2. In any county which has elected to establish a county municipal court pursuant to this section, the judges for such court shall be appointed by the county executive of such county, subject to confirmation by the legislative body of such county in the same manner as confirmation for other county appointed officers. The number of judges appointed, and qualifications for their appointment, shall be established by ordinance of the county.

18 3. The number of divisions of such county municipal court and its term shall be 19 established by ordinance of the county.

4. The ordinance of the county [shall] may provide for regular sessions of court in the evening hours after 6:00 p.m. and at locations outside the county seat.

5. Judges of the county municipal court shall be licensed to practice law in this state and shall be residents of the county in which they serve. Municipal court judges shall not accept or handle cases in their practice of law which are inconsistent with their duties as a municipal court judge and shall not be a judge or prosecutor for any other court.

6. In establishing the county municipal court, provisions shall be made for appropriate circumstances whereby defendants may enter not guilty pleas and obtain trial dates by telephone or written communication without personal appearance, or to plead guilty and deliver by mail or electronic transfer or other approved method the specified amount of the fine and costs as otherwise provided by law, within a specified period of time.

31 7. In a county municipal court established pursuant to this section, the county may 32 provide by ordinance for court costs not to exceed the sum which may be provided by municipalities for municipal violations before municipal courts. The county municipal judge 33 34 may assess costs against a defendant who pleads guilty or is found guilty except in those cases 35 where the defendant is found by the judge to be indigent and unable to pay the costs. The costs authorized in this subsection are in addition to service costs, witness fees and jail costs that may 36 37 otherwise be authorized to be assessed, but are in lieu of other court or judge costs or fees. Such 38 costs shall be collected by the authorized clerk and deposited into the county treasury.

8. Provisions shall be made for recording of proceedings, except that if such proceedings are not recorded, then, in that event, a person aggrieved by a judgment of a traffic judge or commissioner shall have the right of a trial de novo. The procedures for perfecting the right of a trial de novo shall be the same as that provided under sections 512.180 to 512.320, RSMo, except that the provisions of subsection 2 of section 512.180, RSMo, shall not apply to such cases. In the event that such proceedings are recorded, all final decisions of the county municipal court shall be appealable on such record to the appellate court with appropriate jurisdiction.

46 9. Any person charged with the violation of a county ordinance in a county which has 47 established a county municipal court under the provisions of this section shall, upon request, be 48 entitled to a trial by jury before a county municipal court judge. Any jury trial shall be heard 49 with a record being made.

50 10. In the event that a court is established pursuant to this section, the circuit judges of 51 the judicial circuit with jurisdiction within that county may authorize the judges of the county 52 municipal court to act as commissioners to hear in the first instance [nonfelony] violations of 53 state law involving motor vehicles as provided by local rule.

The provisions of this

subsection shall not apply to any defendant who is not an officer or employee of the state or any 193 agency of the state in any proceeding against an officer or employee of the state or any agency 194 of the state. 197 6. The limitation on awards for noneconomic damages provided for in this subsection 198 shall be increased or decreased on an annual basis effective January first of each year in 199 accordance with the Implicit Price Deflator for Personal Consumption Expenditures as published 200 by the Bureau of Economic Analysis of the United States Department of Commerce. - 16 2. An application for registration may be filed under this section if the applicant provides a signed statement providing that it has a bona fide intention to use the mark in 17 commerce on or in connection with the goods or services listed in the application. If the 18 19 statement is not filed with the initial application, the statement shall allege that the applicant had a bona fide intention to use the mark in commerce on or in connection with 20 the goods or services listed in the application as of the filing date of the application. 21

[9.] 10. The secretary of state may require the applicant to disclaim an unregisterable component of a mark otherwise registerable, and an applicant may voluntarily disclaim a component of a mark sought to be registered. No disclaimer shall prejudice or affect the applicant's or registrant's rights then existing or thereafter arising in the disclaimed matter, or the applicant's or registrant's rights of registration on another application if the disclaimed matter be or shall have become distinctive of the applicant's or registrant's goods or services.

[10.] 11. Amendments may be made by the secretary of state upon the application submitted by the applicant with the applicant's agreement; or a fresh application may be required to be submitted.

64 (2) The applicant fails to reply or amend within the specified period, whereupon the application shall be deemed to have been abandoned. 65

66 [12.] 13. If the secretary of state finally refuses registration of the mark, the applicant may seek, in the circuit court of Cole County, an extraordinary writ to compel such registration. 67 Such injunction may be granted, but without costs to the secretary of state, on proof that all the 68 statements in the application are true and that the mark is otherwise entitled to registration. 69

ARTICLE II

JURISDICTION

452.740. 1. Except as otherwise provided in section 452.755, a court of this state has jurisdiction to make an initial child custody determination only if: 2

3 (1) This state is the home state of the child on the date of the commencement of the proceeding, or was the home state of the child within six months prior to the 4 5 commencement of the proceeding and the child is absent from this state but a parent or 6 person acting as a parent continues to live in this state;

7 (2) A court of another state does not have jurisdiction under subdivision (1) of this subsection, or a court of the home state of the child has declined to exercise jurisdiction on 8 9 the ground that this state is the more appropriate forum under section 452.770 or 452.775, 10 and:

11 (a) The child and the child's parents, or the child and at least one parent or person 12 acting as a parent have a significant connection with this state other than mere physical presence; and 13

14 (b) Substantial evidence is available in this state concerning the child's care, protection, training and personal relationships; 15

(3) All courts having jurisdiction under subdivisions (1) and (2) of this subsection 16 have declined to exercise jurisdiction on the ground that a court of this state is the more 17 appropriate forum to determine the custody of the child under section 452.770 or 452.775; 18 19 or

20 (4) No state would have jurisdiction under subdivision (1), (2) or (3) of this subsection. 21

22 2. Subsection 1 of this section is the exclusive jurisdictional basis for making a child 23 custody determination by a court of this state.

24 3. Physical presence of, or personal jurisdiction over, a party or a child is not 25 necessary or sufficient to make a child custody determination.

452.745. 1. Except as otherwise provided in section 452.755, a court of this state that has made a child custody determination consistent with section 452.740 or 452.750 has 2 3 exclusive continuing jurisdiction over the determination until:

(1) A court of this state determines that neither the child, the child and one parent, 5 nor the child and a person acting as a parent have a significant connection with this state, and that substantial evidence is no longer available in this state concerning the child's care, 6 7 protection, training and personal relationships; or

8 (2) A court of this state or a court of another state determines that neither the child, 9 nor a parent, nor any person acting as a parent presently resides in this state.

2. A court of this state that has exclusive continuing jurisdiction under this section may decline to exercise its jurisdiction if the court determines that it is an inconvenient forum under section 452.770.

3. A court of this state that has made a child custody determination and does not have exclusive continuing jurisdiction under this section may modify that determination only if it has jurisdiction to make an initial determination under section 452.740.

452.747. 1. Any petition for modification of child custody decrees filed under the provisions of section 452.410 or sections 452.700 to 452.930 shall be verified and, if the original proceeding originated in the state of Missouri, shall be filed in that original case, but service shall be obtained and responsive pleadings may be filed as in any original proceeding.

6 2. Before making a decree under section 452.410 or sections 452.700 to 452.930, the 7 litigants, any parent whose parental rights have not been previously terminated, and any 8 person who has physical custody of the child shall be served in the manner provided by the 9 rules of civil procedure and applicable court rules and may within thirty days after the 10 date of service (forty-five days if service by publication) file a verified answer. If any such 11 persons are outside this state, notice and opportunity to be heard shall be given under 12 section 452.740.

3. In any case in which the paternity of a child has been determined by a court of competent jurisdiction and where the noncustodial parent is delinquent in the payment of child support in an amount in excess of ten thousand dollars, the custodial parent shall have the right to petition a court of competent jurisdiction for the termination of the parental rights of the noncustodial parent.

18 4. When a person filing a petition for modification of a child custody decree owes past due child support to a custodial parent in an amount in excess of ten thousand dollars, 19 20 such person shall post a bond in the amount of past due child support owed as ascertained 21 by the division of child support enforcement or reasonable legal fees of the custodial parent, whichever is greater, before the filing of the petition. The court shall hold the bond 22 23 in escrow until the modification proceedings under this section have been concluded 24 wherein such bond shall be transmitted to the division of child support enforcement for 25 disbursement to the custodial parent.

452.750. Except as otherwise provided in section 452.755, a court of this state shall 2 not modify a child custody determination made by a court of another state unless a court 3 of this state has jurisdiction to make an initial determination under subdivision (1) or (2)

4 of subsection 1 of section 452.740 and:

5 (1) The court of the other state determines it no longer has exclusive continuing 6 jurisdiction under section 452.745 or that a court of this state would be a more convenient 7 forum under section 452.770; or

8 (2) A court of this state or a court of the other state determines that neither the 9 child, nor a parent, nor any person acting as a parent presently resides in the other state.

452.755. 1. A court of this state has temporary emergency jurisdiction if the child is present in this state and the child has been abandoned, or it is necessary in an emergency 2 3 to protect the child because the child, or a sibling or parent of the child, is subjected to or 4 threatened with mistreatment or abuse.

5 2. If there is no previous child custody determination that is entitled to be enforced under sections 452.700 to 452.930, and if no child custody proceeding has been commenced 6 7 in a court of a state having jurisdiction under sections 452.740 to 452.750, a child custody 8 determination made under this section remains in effect until an order is obtained from a court of a state having jurisdiction under sections 452.740 to 452.750. If a child custody 9 proceeding has not been or is not commenced in a court of a state having jurisdiction under 10 sections 452.740 to 452.750, a child custody determination made under this section becomes 11 12 a final determination if:

(1) It so provides; and

(2) This state becomes the home state of the child.

15 3. If there is a previous child custody determination that is entitled to be enforced 16 under sections 452.700 to 452.930, or a child custody proceeding has been commenced in a court of a state having jurisdiction under sections 452.740 to 452.750, any order issued 17 by a court of this state under this section shall specify in the order a period of time which 18 19 the court considers adequate to allow the person seeking an order to obtain an order from the state having jurisdiction under sections 452.740 to 452.750. The order issued in this 20 21 state remains in effect until an order is obtained from the other state within the period 22 specified or the period expires.

23 4. A court of this state that has been asked to make a child custody determination 24 under this section, upon being informed that a child custody proceeding has been commenced, or a child custody determination has been made, by a court of a state having 25 26 jurisdiction under sections 452.740 to 452.750, shall immediately communicate with the 27 other court. A court of this state that is exercising jurisdiction under sections 452.740 to 28 452.750, upon being informed that a child custody proceeding has been commenced, or a 29 child custody determination has been made by a court of another state under a statute 30 similar to this section shall immediately communicate with the court of that state. The

- 31 purpose of such communication is to resolve the emergency, protect the safety of the parties
- 32 and the child, and determine a period for the duration of the temporary order.

452.760. 1. Before a child custody determination is made under sections 452.700 2 to 452.930, notice and an opportunity to be heard in accordance with the standards of 3 section 452.762 shall be given to:

4 (1) All persons entitled to notice under the provisions of the law of this state as in 5 child custody proceedings between residents of this state;

(2) Any parent whose parental rights have not been previously terminated; and

6 7

(3) Any person having physical custody of the child.

8 2. Sections 452.700 to 452.930 shall not govern the enforceability of a child custody 9 determination made without notice and an opportunity to be heard.

3. The obligation to join a party and the right to intervene as a party in a child custody proceeding under sections 452.700 to 452.930 are governed by the law of this state as in child custody proceedings between residents of this state.

452.762. 1. Notice required for the exercise of jurisdiction when a person is outside this state may be given in a manner prescribed by the law of this state for the service of process or by the law of the state in which the service is made. Notice must be given in a manner reasonably calculated to give actual notice, but may be by publication if other

5 means are not effective.

6 2. Proof of service may be made in the manner prescribed by law of this state or by 7 the law of the state in which the service is made.

8 3. Notice is not required for the exercise of jurisdiction with respect to a person who 9 submits to the jurisdiction of the court.

452.765. 1. Except as otherwise provided in section 452.755, a court of this state shall not exercise its jurisdiction under sections 452.740 to 452.785 if, at the time of the commencement of the proceeding, a proceeding concerning the custody of the child had been previously commenced in a court of another state having jurisdiction substantially in conformity with sections 452.700 to 452.930, unless the proceeding has been terminated or is stayed by the court of the other state because a court of this state is a more convenient forum under section 452.770.

8 2. Except as otherwise provided in section 452.755, a court of this state, prior to 9 hearing a child custody proceeding, shall examine the court documents and other 10 information supplied by the parties under section 452.780. If the court determines that a 11 child custody proceeding was previously commenced in a court in another state having 12 jurisdiction substantially in accordance with sections 452.700 to 452.930, the court of this 13 state shall stay its proceeding and communicate with the court of the other state. If the

14 court of the state having jurisdiction substantially in accordance with sections 452.700 to 15 452.930 does not determine that the court of this state is a more appropriate forum, the 16 court of this state shall dismiss the proceeding.

17 3. In a proceeding to modify a child custody determination, a court of this state shall determine if a proceeding to enforce the determination has been commenced in 18 19 another state. If a proceeding to enforce a child custody determination has been 20 commenced in another state, the court may:

21 (1) Stay the proceeding for modification pending the entry of an order of a court 22 of the other state enforcing, staying, denying or dismissing the proceeding for enforcement;

(2) Enjoin the parties from continuing with the proceeding for enforcement; or

24

(3) Proceed with the modification under conditions it considers appropriate.

452.770. 1. A court of this state that has jurisdiction under sections 452.700 to 452.930 to make a child custody determination may decline to exercise its jurisdiction at 2 3 any time if the court determines that it is an inconvenient forum under the circumstances and that a court of another state is a more appropriate forum. The issue of inconvenient 4 forum may be raised upon the court's own motion, at the request of another court or upon 5 motion of a party. 6

7 2. Before determining whether the court is an inconvenient forum, a court of this state shall consider whether it is appropriate that a court of another state exercise 8 jurisdiction. For this purpose, the court shall allow the parties to submit information and 9 10 shall consider all relevant factors, including:

(1) Whether domestic violence has occurred and is likely to continue in the future 11 12 and which state could best protect the parties and the child;

(2) The length of time the child has resided outside this state;

(3) The distance between the court in this state and the court in the state that would 14 assume jurisdiction; 15

16

(4) The relative financial circumstances of the parties;

17

(5) Any agreement of the parties as to which state should assume jurisdiction;

18 (6) The nature and location of the evidence required to resolve the pending litigation, including the testimony of the child; 19

20 (7) The ability of the court of each state to decide the issue expeditiously and the 21 procedures necessary to present the evidence; and 22 (8) The familiarity of the court of each state with the facts and issues of the pending 23 litigation.

24 3. If a court of this state determines that it is an inconvenient forum and that a 25 court of another state is a more appropriate forum, the court shall stay the proceedings on the condition that a child custody proceeding be promptly commenced in another designated state and may impose any other condition the court considers just and proper.

4. A court of this state may decline to exercise its jurisdiction under sections 452.700 to 452.930 if a child custody determination is incidental to an action for divorce or another proceeding while still retaining jurisdiction over the divorce or other proceeding.

452.775. 1. Except as otherwise provided in section 452.755, if a court of this state has jurisdiction under sections 452.700 to 452.930 because a person invoking the jurisdiction has engaged in unjustifiable conduct, the court shall decline to exercise its jurisdiction unless:

5 (1) The parents and all persons acting as parents have acquiesced in the exercise 6 of jurisdiction;

7 (2) A court of the state otherwise having jurisdiction under sections 452.740 to 8 452.750 determines that this state is a more appropriate forum under section 452.770; or

(3) No other state would have jurisdiction under sections 452.740 to 452.750.

2. If a court of this state declines to exercise its jurisdiction under subsection 1 of this section, the court may fashion an appropriate remedy to ensure the safety of the child and prevent a repetition of the wrongful conduct, including staying the proceeding until a child custody proceeding is commenced in a court having jurisdiction under sections 452.740 to 452.750.

15 3. If a court dismisses a petition or stays a proceeding because it declines to exercise its jurisdiction under subsection 1 of this section, the court shall charge the party invoking 16 the jurisdiction of the court with necessary and reasonable expenses including costs, 17 communication expenses, attorney's fees, investigative fees, expenses for witnesses, travel 18 19 expenses and child care during the course of the proceedings, unless the party from whom 20 fees are sought establishes that the award would be clearly inappropriate. The court may 21 not assess fees, costs or expenses against this state except as otherwise provided by law 22 other than sections 452.700 to 452.930.

452.780. 1. Subject to local law providing for the confidentiality of procedures, addresses, and other identifying information, in a child custody proceeding, each party, in its first pleading or in an attached affidavit, shall give information, if reasonably ascertainable, under oath as to the child's present address, the places where the child has lived during the last five years, and the names and present addresses of the persons with whom the child has lived during such period. The pleading or affidavit shall state whether the party: 8 (1) Has participated, as a party or witness or in any other capacity, in any other 9 proceeding concerning the custody of or visitation with the child and, if so, identify the 10 court, case number of the proceeding and date of the child custody determination, if any;

(2) Knows of any proceeding that could affect the current proceeding, including proceedings for enforcement and proceedings relating to domestic violence, protective orders, termination of parental rights, and adoptions and, if so, identify the court and case number and nature of the proceeding; and

(3) Knows the names and addresses of any person not a party to the proceeding who has physical custody of the child or claims rights of legal custody or physical custody of, or visitation with, the child and, if so, the names and addresses of such persons.

18 2. If the information required by subsection 1 of this section is not furnished, the 19 court, upon its own motion or that of a party, may stay the proceeding until the 20 information is furnished.

3. If the declaration as to any of the items described in subdivisions (1) to (3) of subsection 1 of this section is in the affirmative, the declarant shall give additional information under oath as required by the court. The court may examine the parties under oath as to details of the information furnished and other matters pertinent to the court's jurisdiction and the disposition of the case.

4. Each party has a continuing duty to inform the court of any proceeding in this or any other state that could affect the current proceeding.

5. If a party alleges in an affidavit or a pleading under oath that the health, safety, or liberty of a party or child would be put at risk by the disclosure of identifying information, that information shall be sealed and not disclosed to the other party or the public unless the court orders the disclosure to be made after a hearing in which the court takes into consideration the health, safety, or liberty of the party or child and determines that the disclosure is in the interest of justice.

452.782. If the court learns from information furnished by the parties under section 452.800 or from other sources that a person not a party to the custody proceeding has physical custody of the child or claims to have custody or visitation rights with respect to the child, it may order that person to be joined as a party and to be duly notified of the pendency of the proceeding and of his or her joinder as a party. If the person joined as a party is outside this state, such person shall be served with process or otherwise notified in accordance with section 452.762.

452.785. 1. The court may order any party to the proceeding who is in this state 2 to appear before the court personally. If the court finds the physical presence of the child 3 to be in the best interest of the child, the court may order that the party who has physical 4 custody of the child to appear physically with the child.

5 2. If a party to a child custody proceeding whose presence is desired by the court 6 is outside this state, with or without the child, the court may order that a notice given 7 under section 452.762 include a statement directing the party to appear personally with or 8 without the child.

9 3. If a party to the proceeding who is outside this state is directed to appear under 10 subsection 1 of this section or desires to appear personally before the court with or without 11 the child, the court may require another party to pay to the clerk of the court travel and 12 other necessary expenses of the party so appearing and of the child, if this is just and 13 proper under the circumstances.

4. If the court finds it to be in the best interest of the child that a guardian ad litem 14 15 be appointed, the court may appoint a guardian ad litem for the child. The guardian ad litem so appointed shall be an attorney licensed to practice law in the state of Missouri. 16 Disqualification of a guardian ad litem shall be ordered in any legal proceeding under this 17 chapter upon the filing of a written application by any party within ten days of 18 19 appointment. Each party shall be entitled to one disqualification of a guardian ad litem appointed under this subsection in each proceeding, except a party may be entitled to 20 21 additional disqualifications of a guardian ad litem for good cause shown. The guardian 22 ad litem may, for the purpose of determining custody of the child only, participate in the 23 proceeding as if such guardian ad litem were a party. The court shall enter judgment allowing a reasonable fee to the guardian ad litem. 24

5. The court shall appoint a guardian ad litem in any proceeding in which child abuse or neglect is alleged.

6. The court may enter any orders necessary to ensure the safety of the child and of any person ordered to appear under this section.

452.790. A child custody determination made by a court of this state that had jurisdiction under sections 452.700 to 452.930 binds all persons who have been served in accordance with the laws of this state or notified in accordance with section 452.762 or who have submitted to the jurisdiction of the court, and who have been given an opportunity to be heard. The determination is conclusive as to them as to all decided issues of law and fact except to the extent the determination is modified. 452.795. A court of this state shall accord full faith and credit to an order made

2 consistently with sections 452.700 to 452.930 which enforces a child custody determination
3 by a court of another state unless the order has been vacated, stayed, or modified by a

4 court authorized to do so under sections 452.740 to 452.845.

452.800. Except as otherwise provided in section 452.755, a court of this state may not modify a child custody determination made by a court of another state unless a court of this state has jurisdiction to make an initial determination under subdivision (1) or (2) of subsection 1 of section 452.740 and:

- 5 (1) The court of the other state determines that it no longer has exclusive, 6 continuing jurisdiction under section 452.745 or that a court of this state would be a more 7 convenient forum under section 452.770; or
- 8 (2) A court of this state or a court of the other state determines that neither child, 9 nor a parent, nor any person acting as a parent presently resides in the other state.

452.805. 1. A certified copy of a custody decree of another state may be filed in the office of the clerk of any circuit court of this state. The clerk shall treat the decree in the same manner as a custody decree of the circuit court of this state. A custody decree so filed has the same effect and shall be enforced in like manner as a custody decree rendered by a court of this state.

A person violating a custody decree of another state which makes it necessary to enforce the decree in this state may be required to pay necessary travel and other expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred by the party entitled to the custody or the party's witnesses.

3. A court of this state shall recognize and enforce a child custody determination of a court of another state if the latter court exercised jurisdiction that was in substantial conformity with sections 452.700 to 452.930 or the determination was made under factual circumstances meeting the jurisdictional standards of sections 452.700 to 452.930 and the determination has not been modified in accordance with sections 452.700 to 452.930.

4. A court may utilize any remedy available under other law of this state to enforce a child custody determination made by a court of another state. The procedure provided by sections 452.740 to 452.845 does not affect the availability of other remedies to enforce a child custody determination.

452.810. 1. A child custody determination issued by a court of another state may 2 be registered in this state, with or without a simultaneous request for enforcement, by 3 sending to the appropriate court in this state:

(1) A letter or other document requesting registration;

5 (2) Two copies, including one certified copy, of the determination sought to be 6 registered, and a statement under penalty of perjury that to the best of the knowledge and 7 belief of the person seeking registration the order has not been modified; and

8 (3) Except as otherwise provided in section 452.780, the name and address of the 9 person seeking registration and any parent or person acting as a parent who has been awarded custody or visitation in the child custody determination sought to be registered. 10 11 2. On receipt of the documents required in subsection 1 of this section, the 12 registering court shall: 13 (1) Cause the determination to be filed as a foreign judgment, together with one copy of any accompanying documents and information, regardless of their form; and 14 15 (2) Serve notice upon the persons named under subdivision (3) of subsection 1 of this section and provide them with an opportunity to contest the registration in accordance 16 17 with this section. 18 3. The notice required by subdivision (2) of subsection 2 of this section must state: 19 (1) That a registered determination is enforceable as of the date of the registration 20 in the same manner as a determination issued by a court of this state; 21 (2) That a hearing to contest the validity of the registered determination must be requested within twenty days after service of notice; and 22 23 (3) That failure to contest the registration will result in confirmation of the child 24 custody determination and preclude further contest of that determination with respect to any matter that could have been asserted. 25 26 4. A person seeking to contest the validity of a registered order must request a 27 hearing within twenty days after service of the notice. At that hearing, the court shall 28 confirm the registered order unless the person contesting registration establishes that: 29 (1) The issuing court did not have jurisdiction under sections 452.740 to 452.845; 30 (2) The child custody determination sought to be registered has been vacated, 31 stayed, or modified by a court of a state having jurisdiction to do so under sections 452.740 32 to 452.845; or 33 (3) The person contesting registration was entitled to notice, but notice was not 34 given in accordance with the standards of section 452.740 in the proceedings before the 35 court that issued the order for which registration is sought. 36 5. If a timely request for a hearing to contest the validity of the registration is not made, the registration is confirmed as a matter of law and the person requesting 37 38 registration and all persons served must be notified of the confirmation. 39 6. Confirmation of a registered order, whether by operation of law or after notice 40 and hearing, precludes further contest of the order with respect to any matter which could have been asserted at the time of registration. 41 452.815. The clerk of the circuit court of this state, at the request of the court of another state or at the request of any person who is affected by or has a legitimate interest 2

3 in a custody decree, may, upon payment therefor, certify and forward a copy of the decree

4 to that court or person.

452.820. 1. In addition to other procedures available to a party, a party to a child custody proceeding may offer testimony of witnesses who are located in another state, including testimony of the parties and the child, by deposition or other means allowable in this state for testimony taken in another state. The court on its own motion may order that the testimony of a person be taken in another state and may prescribe the manner in which and the terms upon which the testimony is taken.

7 2. A court of this state may permit an individual residing in another state to be 8 deposed or to testify by telephone, audiovisual means, or other electronic means before a 9 designated court or at another location in that state. A court of this state shall cooperate 10 with courts of other states in designating an appropriate location for the deposition or 11 testimony.

3. Documentary evidence transmitted from another state to a court of this state by technological means that do not produce an original writing may not be excluded from evidence on an objection based on the means of transmission.

452.825. 1. A court of this state may request the appropriate court of another state to hold a hearing to obtain evidence, to order persons within that state to produce or give evidence under other procedures of that state, or to have social studies made with respect to the custody of a child involved in proceedings pending in the court of this state; and to forward to the court of this state certified copies of the transcript of the record of the hearing, the evidence otherwise obtained, or any social studies prepared in compliance with the request. The cost of the services may be assessed against the parties.

8 2. A court of this state may request the appropriate court of another state to order 9 a party to custody proceedings pending in the court of this state to appear in the 10 proceedings and, if that party has physical custody of the child, to appear with the child. 11 The request may state that travel and other necessary expenses of the party and of the 12 child whose appearance is desired will be assessed against the appropriate party.

452.830. 1. Upon request of the court of another state, the courts of this state which are competent to hear custody matters may order a person in this state to appear at a hearing to obtain evidence or to produce or give evidence under other procedures available in this state for use in a custody proceeding in another state. A certified copy of the transcript of the record of the hearing or the evidence otherwise obtained may, in the discretion of the court and upon payment therefor, be forwarded to the requesting court. 2. A person within this state may voluntarily give his testimony or statement in this

8 state for use in a custody proceeding outside this state.

3. Upon request of the court of another state, a competent court of this state may 10 order a person in this state to appear alone or with the child in a custody proceeding in another state. The court may condition compliance with the request upon assurance by 11 12 the other state that travel and other necessary expenses will be advanced or reimbursed. 452.835. A court of this state shall preserve the pleadings, orders, decrees, records 2 of hearings, evaluations, and other pertinent records with respect to a child custody 3 proceeding until the child reaches eighteen years of age. Upon appropriate request by the 4 court or law enforcement official of another state, the court shall forward certified copies 5 of these records. 452.840. If a custody decree has been rendered in another state concerning a child 2 involved in a custody proceeding pending in a court of this state, the court of this state, 3 upon taking jurisdiction of the case, shall request of the court of the other state a certified 4 copy of the transcript of any court record and other documents mentioned in section 5 452.835. 452.845. If a question of existence or exercise of jurisdiction under sections 452.700 to 452.930 is raised in a child custody proceeding, the question, upon request of a party, 2 3 must be given priority on the calendar and handled expeditiously. 4 ARTICLE III 5 ENFORCEMENT 452.850. 3. If a court of this state makes an order under subdivision (2) of subsection 2 of this section, the court shall specify in the order a period of time which it considers adequate to allow the person seeking the order to obtain an order from the state having jurisdiction under sections 452.740 to 452.845. The order remains in effect until an order is obtained from the other state or the period expires.

452.860. 1. A court of this state may grant any relief normally available under the provisions of the laws of this state to enforce a registered child custody determination made by a court of another state.

4 2. A court of this state shall recognize and enforce, but shall not modify, except in 5 accordance with sections 452.740 to 452.845, a registered child custody determination of 6 another state.

452.865. If a proceeding for enforcement under sections 452.850 to 452.915 has been or is commenced in this state and a court of this state determines that a proceeding to modify the determination has been commenced in another state having jurisdiction to modify the determination under sections 452.740 to 452.845, the enforcing court shall immediately communicate with the modifying court. The proceeding for enforcement continues unless the enforcing court, after consultation with the modifying court, stays or dismisses the proceeding.

452.870. 1. A petition under sections 452.850 to 452.915 shall be verified. Certified copies of all orders sought to be enforced and of the order confirming registration, if any, section 452.810, the petition shall also state the date and place of registration.

4. The court shall issue an order directing the respondent to appear with or without the child at a hearing and may enter any orders necessary to ensure the safety of the parties and the child.

5. The hearing shall be held on the next judicial day following service of process unless such date is impossible. In such event, the court shall hold the hearing on the first day possible. The court may extend the date of hearing at the request of the petitioner.

6. The order shall state the time and place of the hearing, and shall advise the respondent that at the hearing the court will order the delivery of the child and payment of fees, costs and expenses under section 452.890, and may set an additional hearing to determine if further relief is appropriate, unless the respondent appears and establishes

32 that:

(1) The child custody determination is not registered and confirmed under section

35

(a) The issuing court did not have jurisdiction under sections 452.740 to 452.845;

43 and confirmed under section 452.810, but has been vacated, stayed or modified by a court

452.875. Except as otherwise provided in section 452.885, the petition and order shall be served by any method authorized by the laws of this state upon the respondent and any person who has physical custody of the child.

452.880. 1. Unless the court enters a temporary emergency order under section 452.755, upon a finding that a petitioner is entitled to the physical custody of the child immediately, the court shall order the child delivered to the petitioner unless the respondent establishes that:

5 (1) The child custody determination has not been registered and confirmed under 6 section 452.810, and that:

- 3. If a party called to testify refuses to answer on the grounds that the testimony may be self-incriminating, the court may draw an adverse inference from such refusal.
- 4. A privilege against disclosure of communications between spouses and a defense of immunity based on the relationship of husband and wife, or parent and child shall not

If required by the exigency of the case, the court may authorize law enforcement officers to make a forcible entry at any hour.

6. The court may impose conditions on the placement of a child to ensure the appearance of the child and the child's custodian.

hundred thousand inhabitants and located in more than one county may establish, by order or ordinance, an administrative system for adjudicating parking and other civil, nonmoving municipal code violations consistent with applicable state law. Such administrative adjudication system shall be subject to practice, procedure, and pleading rules established by the state

3 (1) Any person who has served on a state or federal petit or grand jury within the 4 preceding two years;

111

8 (3) Any person upon whom service as a juror would in the judgment of the court impose9 an undue or extreme physical or financial hardship;

(4) [Any person licensed as a health care provider as such term is defined in section 538.205, RSMo, but only if such person provides a written statement to the court certifying that he or she is actually providing health care services to patients, and that the person's service as a juror would be detrimental to the health of the person's patients;

(5)] Any employee of a religious institution whose religious obligations or constraints prohibit their serving on a jury. The certification of the employment and obligation or constraint may be provided by the employee's religious supervisor.

[4.] 5. Unless it is apparent to the court that the physical hardship would significantly impair the person's ability to serve as a juror, for purposes of sections 494.400 to 494.460 undue or extreme physical or financial hardship is limited to circumstances in which an individual would:

(1) Be required to abandon a person under his or her personal care or supervision due to the impossibility of obtaining an appropriate substitute caregiver during the period of participation in the jury pool or on the jury; or

(2) Incur costs that would have a substantial adverse impact on the payment of the individual's necessary daily living expenses or on those for whom he or she provides the principal means of support; or 39

(3) Suffer physical hardship that would result in illness or disease.

40 [5.] 6. Undue or extreme physical or financial hardship does not exist solely based on 41 the fact that a prospective juror will be required to be absent from his or her place of 42 employment.

Failure to provide satisfactory documentation shall result in a denial of the request to be excused. Such documents shall be filed under seal.

49 [7.] 8. After two years, a person excused from jury service shall become eligible once 50 again for qualification as a juror unless the person was excused from service permanently. A 51 person is excused from jury service permanently only when the deciding judge determines that 52 the underlying grounds for being excused are of a permanent nature.
