

HB 45 -- Sunday Liquor Sales During Sporting Events

Sponsor: Smith (14)

This bill allows persons licensed to sell intoxicating liquor by the drink to be open on Sundays when a national championship of a major sport is being played or when a Missouri-based professional or college team is playing in a national championship or televised bowl game. Currently, these licensees may be open on certain holidays that fall on a Sunday and on "Super Bowl Sunday."