

HB 146 -- State-Funded Higher Education Programs for Students from Terrorist Countries

Sponsor: Salva

This bill prohibits public or private higher education institutions from using state funds on exchange programs for students from terrorist states as designated by the United States Department of State.