

HB 478 -- National Animal Identification System

Sponsor: Dethrow

This bill prohibits the Department of Agriculture from participating in any animal identification program that may be required under the National Animal Identification System administered by the United States Department of Agriculture without specific authorization from the General Assembly.