

HB 639 -- Underground Power Lines

Sponsor: Walsh

This bill requires new developments for dwelling units and other structures to have the power lines including, but not limited to, gas, electric, telephone, and cable lines installed underground. The bill specifies a dwelling unit as one or more rooms used by one or more individuals living together as a single housekeeping unit which contains cooking, living, sanitary, and sleeping facilities.