

HB 800 -- Prosecution of Claims

Sponsor: McGhee

Currently, any landlord organized as a corporation that owns and manages rental property cannot bring an action to remove a tenant without being represented by an attorney. This bill authorizes corporations or unincorporated associations to be represented in court by the president or vice-president of the entity for any action regarding expedited eviction, unlawful detainer, rent and possession, or ejectment.