

HB 840 -- Agricultural Tax Credits

Sponsor: Loehner

This bill revises the definition of "agricultural tax credits" administered by the Missouri Agriculture and Small Business Development Authority to include family farm breeding livestock loan tax credits created under the Tax Credit Accountability Act of 2004 and requires that certain types of agricultural production facilities be located in Missouri to qualify its producer member for agricultural tax credits.