

HB 868 -- Federal REAL ID Act of 2005

Sponsor: Guest

This bill prohibits the state from participating in any national identification system using driver's license records as required in the federal REAL ID Act of 2005.

Data obtained from a driver's license record will not be shared with any organization or state, other than law enforcement, without the driver's express permission or a court order.