

HB 903 -- Product Seller Liability

Sponsor: Stevenson

This bill prohibits any legal action for liability against the seller of a product unless he or she manufactured, produced, designed, altered, modified, assembled, installed, or failed to maintain the product in a way that caused harm to the plaintiff. However, if the manufacturer of the product is not subject to jurisdiction in Missouri, the product seller may be sued for liability.

The bill contains an emergency clause.