

HB 941 -- University of Missouri Donor Financial Records

Sponsor: Kingery

This bill allows the University of Missouri curators to close the records of donors or potential donors when they contain personal financial information that federal or Missouri tax authorities are allowed or required to treat as confidential under law and rule, credit reports, banking information, or personal financial documents such as estate plans.