

HB 949 -- Retirement of State Officers and Employees

Sponsor: Schlottach

Beginning January 1, 2008, this bill allows state officers and employees who have creditable service in a retirement system established under Chapter 104, RSMo, to transfer the service between systems. The system transferring the service will pay the receiving system an agreed upon amount based on the accrued liability of the service.