

HB 996 -- Missouri Training and Employment Council

Sponsor: Hobbs

This bill abolishes the Missouri Training and Employment Council in the Department of Economic Development and the commissioning of a new targeted industries study by the department. The Division of Job Development and Training within the department will assume certain responsibilities previously performed by the council including the review of project funding assistance, program criteria, and other requirements and priorities in the evaluation and monitoring of youth service and conservation corps projects.