

HB 1086 -- Circuit Court Marshals

Sponsor: Day

This bill allows a circuit court to appoint an extra circuit court marshal if the average total inmate population in all corrections facilities located in the circuit during the previous two years is more than 1,500. Currently, the court can appoint an extra marshal only when the total average inmate population over the two-year period is more than 2,500.