

HB 1266 -- Parental Accountability Officers

Sponsor: Wood

This bill requires every school district to have a parental accountability officer to monitor the attendance and discipline of students. The Department of Elementary and Secondary Education will train the officers, whose salaries will be paid by the state.