

HB 1276 -- Residential Construction Disclosure Forms

Sponsor: Curls

Beginning August 28, 2007, this bill requires contractors of new residential construction to provide potential owners with a disclosure form which contains information regarding the contractor, whether the contractor is licensed or registered, and the contractor's work history. The Office of the Attorney General will develop the form and make it available on the Internet.