

HB 1277 -- Open Meetings Law

Sponsor: Pearce

This bill removes the proxy voting exception in the Opening Meetings Law, commonly known as the Sunshine Law. The expiration date of December 31, 2008, for the closed records requirements for public agency emergency response and operational guidelines and documents detailing public governmental security systems and structural plans of government-owned or leased buildings is also removed.