

HJR 28 -- Protection from Public Nuisances

Sponsor: Harris (110)

Upon voter approval, this proposed constitutional amendment repeals the authority of constitutionally chartered cities and counties to take blighted property by eminent domain but authorizes them to enact ordinances against public nuisance properties and to impose liens on the properties for the public expense of abatement if the property owner fails to do so.